Pope Francis will make a pastoral visit to Canada this week, from July 24 to 29, 2022.

The Pope's visit will provide a unique opportunity for him, once again, to listen and dialogue with Indigenous Peoples, to express his heartfelt closeness and to address the impact of colonization and the participation of the Catholic Church in the operation of residential schools throughout Canada.

The papal visit will also provide an opportunity for the shepherd of the world's 1.2 billion Catholics to connect with the Catholic community in Canada.

The Catholic Church has a responsibility to take genuine and meaningful steps to journey with Indigenous Peoples of this land on the lengthy path to healing and reconciliation.

The site <https://www.papalvisit.ca/> will provide information on the historic journey of Pope Francis to Canada, a significant step on the road to truth, understanding and healing. Let us join together as we reflect, pray and prepare to welcome the Holy Father for these special days among us (from our diocesan website).

...I would like to take up a few of the many things that have struck me. Let me start from a saying that is part of your traditional wisdom. It is not only a turn of phrase but also a way of viewing life: "In every deliberation, we must consider the impact on the seventh generation" ...

From Pope Francis, address to representatives of indigenous peoples of Canada, Clementine Hall, Vatican City, February 1, 2022
